Steve Gatto is an attorney who resides in Lansing, Michigan, home of the Chicago Cubs' Class A affiliate the Lansing Lugnuts. He is the author of several non-fiction books including "The Real Wyatt Earp," "Johnny Ringo," and "Curly Bill, Tombstone's Most Famous Outlaw."

Steve was raised in Tucson, Arizona, where he was an avid baseball fan from an early age who would watch Pacific Coast League games during the season and Major League teams in the off-season. Like many Cubs fans, Steve's interest in the Chicago Cubs was passed down from his father, who would watch the Cubbies daily on WGN throughout the 1980s and the 1990s.
